

Dear Sirs and Madam:

I am an American. I have a Bachelor's in Psychology and am a behavior therapist.

As an American born in the seventies, I have been witness to the gradual rise of the large media giants that has been due to the loosening of FCC regulations over the years. I have been increasingly concerned by the more and more jingoistic nature of the news reporting and abysmal quality of the broadcasting. This is what happens when big corporations take over.

From what we can understand of the proposed changes (as debate has been kept off the corporate media), the changes that you are considering will lead to further consolidation. We have had to revert to websites such as mediatank and mediareform to get an idea of the real issues at stake. We have a right to get honest objective news from our televisions!

We, the people, want rules in place that serve the public, rather than private, interest. I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules for democracy's sake!

Sincerely,

Michelle Moyer-Tsai
